

The Bulletin of the Chemical Society of Japan assistance to those in the earthquake affected area

The Bulletin of the Chemical Society of Japan (BCSJ) editorial board is offering the following assistance to people and institutions afflicted by the East Japan Earthquake.

1. BCSJ publications

We will replace without charge lost or damaged BCSJ issues (published 2009-2011) to academic libraries in Ibaraki and the Tohoku region.

2. PDF reprints

We will replace lost and damaged PDF reprints free of charge to authors in the afflicted area.

3. Open Access option

Manuscripts received from the afflicted area for publication in 2011 will be offered the Open Access option free of charge.

4. PayPerView profits

A portion of PayPerView profits will be donated to support those afflicted.

Please do not hesitate to contact the editorial office if needed.
