

Confirmation Sheet for Author's Correction

FAX to: +81-3-3292-6319 Chemical Society of Japan, Chem. Lett.

Manuscript No: CL-

Please confirm the galley proof when you received it. (Please check the adequate box below.)

No change. I agree to publish the manuscript just as it is.

Need amendment(s).

- In the case there're misprints or some other problems, please write down in the margin directly on the printed galley proof to indicate where and how to correct them.
- If there're troubles caused by garbled characters or page-layout problems, please contact the CSJ Editorial Office immediately.

[NOTICE]

It is not permitted that any information included in your final manuscript would be changed. Nevertheless it would be the minor amendment, your corrected manuscript would be requested to reexamination, and the publishing date would be delayed.

If you need to correct your galley proof, please make the hardcopy of the PDF of your galley proof and send it back to us by fax indicating where and how to correct it.

Advance View

I DO NOT wish to publish my manuscript on the web prior to the issuing date of printed version of the journal.

⇒ Papers accepted for publication will be on the web after author's correction of the galley proofs. This online service provides 2-6 weeks' advantage in the paper's release date compared to the printed version. Authors should bear this in mind and plan patent activities related to their paper accordingly.

Series of Manuscript

I wish to publish a series of manuscripts; Manuscript No: CL-

⇒ In the case that you submitted some manuscripts at the same time and accepted both of them, serialization of such manuscripts are available. If you wish to publish them in a serial form, please check the box below and indicate the target manuscript numbers.
